

VLC Professional Profile

VLC General Contracting (VLC) is owned and operated by Vernon L. Crabtree, Jr. and has been in operation since 1979. Crabtree has been a general contractor since 1984 and is licensed in Oregon and California. VLC provides professional construction services to A.I.A. architects, designers, and developers and works directly with clients for both residential and commercial projects.

VLC constructs high-quality custom and speculative homes and has a reputation for excellence. We have built award-winning homes at The Sea Ranch development on the North Coast of California, in California's Napa, Sonoma, and Marin counties, in Napa Valley, and in Lake Tahoe. We've also crafted stunning wineries and tasting rooms in the Napa Valley.

We have built structures in a wide range of styles including Frank Lloyd Wright style, Carson Bowler A.I.A. homes, Rammed Earth, and Tuscan Italian and Mediterranean architecture.

VLC is also experienced in commercial building and remodel and renovation work including conceptual drawings, consulting, AutoCAD drafting, design, color renderings, and more.
